THE STORY SO FAR...

Lizzie, leader of the infamous Rebel Angels, was being carried by train with an escort of federal marshals to her trial (and most likely, execution), when her gang decided to spring her. Much to the surprise of robbers and lawmen alike, the train carried a secret cargo—reanimated corpses with a thirst for blood. Everyone on the train was slaughtered, except for Lizzie, who was saved by a mysterious priest, Ivan Isaacs.

Afterwards, Lizzie followed her dark savior to the frontier town of St. Baldias, where she witnessed an even more brutal battle between Ivan and the demon Jarbilong, a servant of the fallen angel Temocarela. Again, Ivan overcame his enemies with silver bullets, a wicked knife, and an inhuman strength, fueled by his own rage and the power of the Devil Belial who resides within his soul. Again, Lizzie was the only survivor, but in the battle she too became infected by the plague of Temocarela. Before blacking out, she was picked up by a local sheriff who had been investigating the accident on the train. But the one who holds all the answers, Ivan Isaacs, disappeared into the desert.

START OF VOL. 3.

ENJOY!!!

JUST AS OUR LORD SAID IN THE BIBLE

MURDER
IS A SIN

THIS IS NOT MAN'S LAW!

THIS IS HEAVEN'S LAW THAT OUR GLORIOUS
LORD TOLD US. THIS IS GOD'S LAW!

HOW CAN THE NORTH-LESS
CON-TAINED
BY MAN

...TO LAWYER
OVER THE LAW
OF THE BIBLE?

AND YET
WE ARE STILL HESTANT!

ALTHOUGH WE HAVE THE CORNAL WHO DEVOTED HIMSELF TO FILLING AND ANSWERING TO US, WE ARE STILL HESTANT.

THAT CORNAL IS BRAGGARTY HIND
THE
MAN MADE.

I CAN
HACKING

OF THE LORD, ARE BREAKING GOD'S LAW...

...IT
TRYING
GOD'S LAW
FIRST!

THAT WOMAN IS A MURDERER
AND A HERETIC.
SHE IS THE GUILTY BENEFIT THE MARRIAGES OF
ST. BALDAB!

IF SHE HAD THE CHANCE SHE'D DO THE SAME TO OUR TOWN! THINK OF YOUR FAMILIES!

THAT'S RIGHT!

SHE AIN'T
SHE'S A WHORE
A WHORE!

ALL 50
PEOPLE
OF ST.
BALDAB WERE
TO

THAT KIND OF CRIME DOESN'T DESERVE A TRIAL!

THERE'S NOTHING TO WAIT FOR!

THAT'S RIGHT!

LET'S HURRY
NOW!

LET'S ALL MARCH DOWN TO THE JAILHOUSE.
RIGHT NOW?

AND LET'S DRAG THAT WITCH OUT AND HANG HER
FROM A LAMB!

LET'S STAKE
HER
FOR HER HERESY!

YOU'RE A BASTARD HANGING THAT WITCH!

IF HE CONTINUES TO PROTECT HER, HE'S ALSO CONVERTING A CONVICT.

LET'S STAKE
NOW!

HANGMAN!
SEND THE WITCH TO HELL!

OF COURSE
THIS CASE
IS A HUNDRED TIMES
WORSE THAN THAT ONE.

AND BUT IT STRANGE THAT TWO PRESIDENTS
DOESN'T DOING ANY-THING ABOUT IT YET?

YES
YES.

YOU KNOW
THE SHIP?
WON'T HAVE HIS CASE
IT'S GOTTA BE BY THE BOOK FOR HIM.

WELL TWO POSS
SOMEONE WILL BACK OFF.

AND NOW IT'S REACHED
CRUCIAL

JUST

I'VE NEVER MET A
HONEST MAN.

I KNOW YOU ALSO
SOME FRIENDS
ON THAT TRIP.

ARE YOU WILLING TO TAKE THE BLAME FOR THEIR DEATHS AS WELL?

I CAN'T PROTECT YOU FOREVER.
IF YOUR TRAIL
DOESN'T START
SOON... WELL,
YOU CAN IMAGINE.

I DIDN'T
AND
THE SCENE...

AND I COULDN'T TELL RIGHT AWAY
THAT IT WASN'T YOUR DOING.

WHY DON'T YOU TELL ME WHAT HAPPENED?

WHAT DID YOU SEE
AT ST.
SALVADOR?

WAS IT THOSE
THAT ATTACKED
THE TRIP?

HA HA HA,
I'M ONLY DOING MY JOB.

I DON'T THINK GOD HAS ANY COMPLAINTS ABOUT MY OBEDIENCE TO MY DUTY.

GOD...

WHAT
SAYING, DECEITFUL?

ARE YOU
TELLING ME THAT MAN'S LAW IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN THE LAW OF THE BIBLE?

THAT KIND OF THINKING WILL TAKE YOU STRAIGHT TO
THE DEVIL. YOU SHOULD BE AFRAID OF YOURSELF!

LET HIM CONTINUE TO STAND ON OUR

...IN THE
NAME OF THE HOLY BIBLE,
THE TENAM-
FOUR AND I...

IVAN ISAACS WILL RETURN IN PRIEST+ VOLUME 4: FORBIDDEN LOVE+

IN WHICH IVAN TAKES US BACK TO HIS YOUTH AND RECOUNTS HIS FORBIDDEN LOVE
FOR GENE AND HIS FALL FROM GRACE.

AN INTERVIEW WITH MIN-WOO HYUNG

Q) What was the first manga that you worked on and what was it about?

A) Chronicle of a Hot-blooded Judo King was the title of my first manga. The concept, in of itself, isn't unique. It's rather a common young adult theme, written purely to entertain.

Q) When did you first begin work on Priest? How did you come up for the concept of combining Spaghetti Westerns with gothic horror?

A) Priest was conceived from Blood, an American PC Game developed by Monolith Productions, Inc. The idea of a resurrected zombie as the protagonist totally fascinated me. Initially, I took the subject matter and began writing a novel, then later decided to draw it instead. In order to preserve the initial charm I experienced from the game's character, I avoided delving further into the character's imaginary world. From an early age, I've always loved Gothic Horrors and Spaghetti Westerns, and Priest was very conducive to both genres. It was rather an easy harmonization of both genres, and they naturally and seamlessly seeped into Priest. (Of course, the game Blood was also created with a horror/western plot. Due to various reasons, both Blood and Priest are inseparably related.)

Q) Reading Priest, I'm amazed at how "western" it feels. You did a remarkable job capturing the spirit of a Hollywood action movie. Were you influenced by movies in making Priest? Can you share any titles that influenced you?

A) The first Western that I accidentally came in contact with was, Walter Hill's The Long Riders. I was never really interested in cowboy movies until I saw this movie, though you'd be hard pressed to call it a Spaghetti Western. After this movie, I slowly started getting into Spaghetti Westerns. As a result, I discovered and came to admire Sergio Leone's works and especially Once Upon a Time in the West. This movie has so profoundly influenced me that any work I do now or will do in the future will inevitably mirror its' stylistic overtures.

Q) The artwork in Priest is very different from other manhwa I've seen. What were your influences?

A) Hell Boy. The first time I saw this comic, I was blown away by its innovative and shocking style. To this day, I cannot forget that series.

Q) How did you become a manhwa artist? Did you have formal training?

A) No, I did not go through any general training course like other manhwa artists. However, like these fellow manhwa lovers, I did undergo a beginning course. And although I had considered manhwa as a mere hobby, now in my late twenties, it has become an occupation.

Q) In Korea, Japanese manga is quite popular, but I haven't heard about American comic books in Korea. Are American comic books readily available, and are you a fan? Are there any American comics in particular you like?

A) American comics are very different from the manhwa Koreans have enjoyed and are used to reading. From production, to character development, everything is very different. Therefore, in order for Korean manhwa fans to enjoy American comics, American writers need to be mindful of their efforts (assuming that American writers desire to do so). Should we become exposed to American comics, through a long-term exchange, there is no doubt in my mind that American comics will become popular in Korea. I, of course, love American comics. Surprisingly, the comics I read as a child were not Japanese manga but rather American comics. It all started with my Aunt and Uncle. My Uncle, who is American, would visit Korea with my Aunt and bring me American comic books. If I have to choose one, my current favorite would have to be CREECH by Greg Caputo.

Q) Priest is currently being adapted into an online game by World Netgames. Are you involved with the development of the game? How closely does the game follow your manhwa?

A) Making two publicity posters for this game was my only involvement. Although the subject matter for the game is from my manhwa, the creation of the game was the creative work of others. (I'm sure you can appreciate the irony: As you know my manhwa was derived from the game Blood and to seemy work being made back into a game is very surreal. This type of reciprocal action or interplay is something you would see in Hollywood. Case in point, a Japanese manga-ka, after watching Mad Max created Fist of the North Star, Hollywood, impressed with the manga, made a movie based on the manga. Although Priest and Fist of the North Star have been both heavily influenced and derived from their respective reciprocal works, they are undoubtedly new and different creative places of work.) The online Priest game has not yet arrived at the conclusion. Therefore, I obviously do not yet know what the differences are between my work and the game. The only thing I do know for sure is that my protagonist will not be in the game.

Q) Do you have an end planned for Priest? What will be the final volume?

A) I've had some ideas for the ending but I'm not sure whether this ending will be feasible. I planned on ending the series at volume 25 but I'm not sure about that either. I'm not the methodical and prudent planner type.

Q) What do you plan to work on when Priest is finished? Do you have any other manhwa stories planned?

A) Warrior, cop, gangster, and skateboard...I'm in the process of choosing from one of these subject matters. (I'm already in the process of developing a Warrior themed manhwa in the US through Image Comics).

Q) Can you share any details on your project with Image?

A) As stated in my previous answer, yes, I am. I am currently working on the manhwa through a joint publishing venture by a Korean and an American company. It's a work in progress, so I want to avoid mentioning anything about it. One thing I can mention is that the initial concept is completely in the style of American comics, however, beyond that, the style converts completely into my own.

Q) The black and white artwork in Priest is very striking. Do you prefer working in the black and white medium? Would you be interested in working on a color series?

A) I really love those noisy black and white films with the distorted and elongated screen shots caused by dust and time. That is why I eliminated the margins, in order for Priest to give off a similar feel. I don't like tones. I don't like them because, they are bothersome, annoying, and all those manhwas that use tones appear to be tied together by one personality. I think colored manhwas are great, although, I have yet to find a coloring method that would convey my individual style. However, I am looking into ways of solving this problem.
